

Jim Losi

Founder & President, Service Learning International, LLC

Biography

Jim Losi graduated from UC Berkeley in 2006 with joint advanced degrees in Political Science and International and Area Studies. He was also a Rotary Peace Fellow. Jim is currently an adjunct associate professor at St. Mary's College of California where he teaches international development aid to undergraduate students and graduate students. Both groups of students travel to and study in Rwanda.

Prior to going back to school, Jim was in the business world for 27+ years. Losi was President of Community Investor Services (CIS) for the Charles Schwab Corporation. Under Losi's leadership, CIS's mission was to improve the quality of life in the communities in which Schwab employees lived and worked by "helping every individual become a community investor." Over the years, Losi held senior leadership positions in several areas of the company and his career in financial service includes prior senior positions at Citicorp and Bank of America.

Losi has served on numerous philanthropic boards including the Red Cross, Guidestar, CARE, the UNCF and several family boards. He is currently on the Board of Trustees for the United States Coast Guard Academy, the Board of Directors of the Coast Guard Auxiliary Association Foundation and a senior advisor to the Zam Zam Water Project. He is also the Founder and Chair of the Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse, which focuses on child abuse issues internationally; and founder of Service Learning International, LLC which offers academic and cultural immersion programs in Africa.

Last updated on 05/09/2018